

Can you see us in 20 years?
Our Canadian home in the mountains
Our family and friends around us
(We've convinced them all to move here!)

Holding hands and drinking wine;
The country music is on;
Dancing, kids laugh along;
Cheeks hurt from smiling wide

These days, part of our hearts
Are left with our UK crew;
But we're a team, me and you
It's how we've been from the start

We disrupted the housemate mood
When we got together in Bath
But we knew we were on the right path
During long weekends in Bude

One skis and one is a sailor
One bakes cakes, the other drinks beer,
With a bike podcast in my ear
I can still hear you singing to Taylor

But the big stuff, we do together:
Our Vancouver move, our Leo
He's the nut job of our trio
But would we change him? Never.

Mountain camping in BC;
Watching whales or Formula One;
Wine tasting in Okanagan;
Tofino: you down on one knee

You're determined, beautiful, brave
You give me what I need
I always have faith you'll succeed
You amaze me every day

So I'll be there for you
Your soldier now and down the line,
There's no mountain we can't climb;
'Cause you're there for me too.
