The door clicks on its hinges
The table's laid for two
The scent of roses reaches me
I'm filled up unexpectedly
With joy at seeing you

The bustle of my daytime
Is stilled within your hands
The drive that has evaded me
The movement forward I can't see
With you, I understand

You can light the room up
When we are with my crowd
All my friends say you pass the test
My mother really likes you best
I'm by your side and proud

A garden full of laughter
A glass that's full of wine
An ice cream under Salcombe sun
The lessons learned in How To Pun:
Life's sweeter now you're mine

So let's plan more adventures
Let's be living out our dream
I know I'm blessed by who you are
That when you're close, we will go far
For you and I are Team
